Dear Sir/Madam,

We are pleased to invite you to attend the Exhibitor Seminar at Food Ingredients Asia 2017 on Astaxanthin: Different Forms Yield Vastly Different Efficacy on September 14th (Thursday) at Room 1, Hall 104, Slot 51 in Bangkok International Trade & Exhibition Centre. The Seminar will start at 10:30 and end at 11:00.

This Seminar is set to bring you insights on different forms of Astaxanthin such as Synthetic Astaxanthin made from petrochemicals and Astaxanthin from a genetically manipulated yeast called Phaffia compared to the algae form, and how those differences yield vastly different efficacy.

Not only will there be many mind-provoking contents and discussion about different forms of Astaxanthin, but there will also be demonstration and information about the novel findings of natural astaxanthin on cardiovascular function which was discovered by our recent human clinical studies. This Seminar will provide you the general overview about Astaxanthin, and the superiority of AstaZine™ the trademarked Natural Astaxanthin from BGG.

We would be glad if you participated in this seminar to understand the health benefits of Astaxanthin and AstaZine™, the unique product at BGG, and also visit our booth at N33.

Yours Truly,
